Mr. Karan Singh

President,
SDRS

Mr. Karan Singh is a pillar of strength and guidance for the Social Development and Research Society (SDRS). With his extensive knowledge of governmental processes and policies, he plays a crucial role in ensuring SDRS's projects are not only aligned with national development goals but also fully compliant with legal and regulatory frameworks.

Mr. Karan's association with SDRS is characterized by his unwavering commitment to fostering social welfare. His experience in public administration provides the organization with unique insights into effective project planning and execution. He actively contributes to the strategic development of initiatives, ensuring that they resonate with the needs of communities while maintaining alignment with broader governmental objectives.

Beyond his professional role, Mr. Karan Singh is deeply passionate about social upliftment. His vision is to see SDRS grow into a model organization that sets benchmarks for transparency, efficiency, and impactful societal contributions. He believes in empowering communities through sustainable development and actively participates in brainstorming sessions to refine project ideas, making them more impactful and sustainable.

His dedication to SDRS extends beyond guidance, as he personally ensures that every project undertaken by the organization meets the highest standards of execution. Whether it's addressing issues like unemployment, environmental conservation, or social equity, Mr. Karan's involvement adds immense value to SDRS's mission of creating a better society for all.

Mr. Gopal Jalan

Mentor & Project Coordination,
SDRS

It is just a small beginning, which is being done through this SDRS non-government organization with the very short and limited resources. There are miles to go and billions to reach; we have started our journey with the great vision to "Bring Smile on every face" which is wet with sorrows and tears, and also we know that it is impossible to complete without your participation & contribution as partner or in any manners As the patron & member I strongly believe that it's our duty and responsibility to give back to the society in which we live, in return of the many things we avail from it in our day-to day lives. SDRS as an organization stems from this root belief. I and my team's quest to serve the destitute gives us the strength to work with full dedication, sincerity and honesty.

Mr. Govind Sharma

Treasurer,
SDRS

The establishment of SDRS is the interest that youth organizations spring up for development. Their encouragement of the foundation of youth organizations and promises to help youth organizations improve capacity building; in order to create participation in development at community levels led to the establishment of SDRS.

We aim at achieving sustainable results from developmental activities and initiatives to our communities, especially with the youth, children, women, widows, old age and the disable. Also aims to increase the self-employability and income of the youth by applying the best to best skill trainings. SDRS assures a social service and quality livelihood to the society.

Miss. Priyanka Sinha

Vice President

Priyanka Sinha has dedicated the past 15 years of her life to social work, and at 40 years old, she continues to be a driving force in this field. Her commitment to society is so deep that she chose not to marry, ensuring that every ounce of her time and energy could be devoted to the up-liftmen of others. Her journey into social work began during her graduation, where she realized her calling was not in the conventional paths of success but in serving the underserved. Over the years, Priyanka has been involved in numerous significant projects that have left a lasting impact on various sections of society. Each of these projects has played a vital role in addressing different societal challenges from employment and skill development to digital literacy and urban development. Through these initiatives, Priyanka has created opportunities for the youth, empowered marginalized communities and championed social justice and equality. Her work is a testament to what unwavering dedication and a selfless attitude can achieve. Personal aspirations to focus on the greater good. Her life exemplifies how one individual's dedication to social responsibility can bring about meaningful change in society.

SOCIAL DEVELOPMENT AND RESEARCH SOCIETY (SDRS)

About us: - Founded in 2008 in Rajasthan, Social Development & Research Society was inspired by a deep compassion for the marginalized—those struggling for their needs and rights. Witnessing the suffering of the poor, oppressed, and unemployed, I felt a strong desire to bring real change to their lives.

SDRS was established to uplift these overlooked sections of society, often untouched by government policies. Our mission is not just financial aid but empowering individuals to become self-reliant, aware of their rights, and capable of improving their own lives. We collaborate with the government to implement programs that ensure everyone can live with dignity and hope for a brighter future.

Social Development and Research Society (SDRS) was founded on the 27th of October 2008 by a group of energetic youth activists, who came together with the objective of improving and upgrading communities in the Rajasthan Region. ### Vocational Training

A Silayi Center focused on vocational training in sewing and tailoring can be a transformative initiative that not only equips individuals with practical skills but also empowers them economically and socially. By providing ongoing support and creating a network of skilled tailors, the center can have a lasting positive impact on the community.

Free Parlor Courses

Empowering Individuals through Skill Development. This initiative aims to empower individuals by providing them with essential skills in the beauty and grooming industry, enabling them to build a better future for themselves and their families. By offering free courses, we not just educating women—we are enabling them to lead more fulfilling lives, contribute to society, and pave the way for future generations. This creates a foundation for a more equitable and empowered community.

Menstrual Hygiene

Working with adolescent girls, we helped promote education on menstrual hygiene and then took the programs to village women. Focusing on the use of sanitary napkins during menstruation is crucial for maintaining hygiene and preventing health issues. Using sanitary napkins during menstruation is a healthier, more hygienic, and convenient option compared to traditional cloth. By choosing sanitary napkins, women can take better care of their menstrual health, prevent infections, and experience greater comfort and confidence during their periods.

Women Empowerment Programs

Women Rights program is design to promote and protect the women's rights focusing on gender, women's political participation, democracy, violence against women, domestic worker's rights etc. The objective of this program is to improve the status of women. It aims to organize women in groups and enable them to part in the development activities by educating them through awareness and advocacy programs.

Safety for Girls Awareness Program

Emphasis on the "Need Help" Application

This program focuses on educating girls about personal safety and equipping them with the knowledge to use the "Need Help" application effectively in emergencies. To empower girls with safety knowledge and skills awareness the use of the "Need Help" application as a discreet and reliable tool for immediate assistance. Girls and young women, ages 12 and above, including students and working professionals. Overview of its features (e.g., one-tap SOS, GPS tracking, emergency contacts, etc.). ### Free Medical Camps

Free medical camps are a vital part of SDRS mission to enhance the health and well-being of our community. These camps not only provide immediate medical care but also educate and empower individuals to take control of their health. By continuing to offer these services, we can make a significant impact on the lives of those who need it most, fostering a healthier, more resilient society.

Say no to plastic bags as plastic bags are threat to our environment because a single plastic bag takes up to 1000 years to decompose as it contains nonrenewable petrochemicals. Hence plastic bags will stay for a more extended period and damage our Mother Nature. Moreover many harmful gases are emitted during the production of polythene which causes serious problems to workers as well as to the environment. So without wasting a minute people. We should say no to polythene bags.

Free Yoga Classes

SDRS organizing free yoga classes to promote health and peace in society. These sessions aim to enhance physical well-being, mental calmness, and community harmony, fostering a healthier and happier society. To promote physical and mental well-being.
